MAD RUSH ON TO PASS PET BILLS

EVERYBODY FIGHTS TO GET THEIR OWN MEASURES THROUGH

(United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—An eleventh hour rush to get legislation passed before the final adjournment of Congress was on today. With less than two weeks of the present session remaining, members are demanding action on "pet" measures. Some are hinting at filibusters to hold up appropriation bills, unless they get it. In addition, outside lobbies are conducting a series of drives in an effort to force through measures in which they are interested.

Cony hopes to fly from Dallas to Jacksonville without a stop, arriving about 6:00 p. m. Cony is so confident of success he has forwarded his dress uniform to Jacksonville in anticipation of visiting his home at Brunswick, Ga., to see his mother after he has turned over his machine to military authorities at Jacksonville.

Sunday Takes a Rap at Those Who Believe in "Monkey" Ancestors; Churches Shouldn't Be Condemned Because of Hypocrites in Them

In his appearance at the big meeting in the Auditorium last evening, Billy Sunday was tired and worn out and struggling against a bad cold that made it very difficult and hard work for him to speak, but his most expectant person in attendance could not have been disappointed in the acrobatic and humorous entertainment given. He told funny and pertinent stories and the house rang with laughter; he gave impersonations that demonstrated that when he took to preaching the stage lost a great actor. The big auditorium was nearly filled with those eager to hear and see the much advertised preacher. At the right of the pulpit were chairs reserved for the clergy and nearly all of the local churches were represented. At the left of the pulpit were chairs reserved for his personal friends and the front center seats were reserved for the various secretaries and committees of the meeting.

A Revival For The Renewal of Personal Work.

When the Christian Church was in its first glow of Pentecostal triumph, every disciple was a worker, every member a personal evangelist. Today as during all the years the Church of Christ needs more members, and, even more keenly, more workers. If a physician makes a discovery that will heal disease, save misery and death, the ethics of his profession require him to impart his secret to those in need of it. When a man or woman makes a discovery concerning Christian Truths and their saving power, the ethics of this profession demand the passing of the redeeming revelation to others. Personal evangelism is needed as much today as ever, if not more so. In every Church, in every community, there is great good accomplished by an occasional genuine Religious Revival. Members of the Church of Christ are brought to a greater realization of their duties and opportunities, non-members are shown the beauties of the Christian Life and the natural craving for spiritual things in every human soul. It seems timely to refer to the words of Mr. R. E. Olds recently published in the DAILY NEWS in which he placed Love, Labor and Religion as the three great things in life—Love—that Divine gift giving us the way to forget self while doing for others. Labor—the honest endeavor of head, heart and hands to accomplish something worth while. Religion—faith in God that gives courage in life, destroys fear of death, and leads to a Life Eternal.

In this issue of the DAILY NEWS appear the announcements of the various Sunday services to be held tomorrow to which you are earnestly invited.

Offers Play Harding for Postoffice as Stakes

(The Associated Press.)
ST. AUGUSTINE, Feb. 19.—Another projected classic of the sport world went by the board today when Harding declined a challenge from Greenville, S. C., postmaster to match skill on the golf links with reappointment to the postmastership as the stake. Harding wrote that he is regarded and held as a miserable player and was unwilling to "have the administration weakened by basing its attitude on my incapacity at golf." He added he liked the postmaster's spurly inclination and if the conditions of the challenge is removed he is willing to accept a match whenever the opportunity offered.

Tonight Will Be Yacht Club Night at Charity Fair

There is going to be a great deal of regret expressed when it is learned that Wednesday night the country store which H. Doolittle established in 1812 and when his active boys have so successfully conducted, was closed. The shutters are to be put up and H's boys are going to knock off work and get into the play again. And all because an eager and generous public has bought out the whole of the stock of the country store and the boys have nothing more to sell. General Manager Noble F. Martin announced the closing of the store and only the pleasing strains of the orchestra which followed the announcement kept the crowd from getting glum with sorrow. The country store has been one of the big features of the fair and this fact is well indicated in the announcement that the stock has all been sold, when it is remembered that very close to 12,000 articles have been sold over the counter by these enthusiastic and energetic members of Daytona Lodge of Elks who have contributed largely to the gaiety of the fair and have hustled in and out of the fair to make it the big success that is now assured for it.

Tonight the Yacht Club will attend the fair. It is going to be another big night and it is certain to draw hundreds of loyal boosters, the public at large who are never content to sit idly by and let someone else do the "ordering" and get the enjoyment besides. There will be a live bunch on hand to demonstrate what is being repeatedly demonstrated every night, that everybody loves the Elks, as they do fat men, and are willing to spend their money on them as well.

Temple Terraces Groves Are Endorsed by Bankers, Business Men and Citrus Experts

There is unprecedented interest manifested by Florida men in the development of the largest citrus planting in the world. Leaders in commerce, prominent members of banking circles and expert fruit growers have united in the project under way at Temple Terraces, near Tampa. These men have investigated the proposition thoroughly and have demonstrated their faith by investing heavily in the enterprise.

The endorsement of such men, who for many years have been associated with the citrus industry in its various phases, places the seal of approval on Temple Terraces as a sound investment.

Four Thousand Acres of Temple Oranges Offering Unusual Investment Opportunity

Four thousand acres comprising Temple Terraces will be planted to Temple oranges. This is a new, improved variety, fruit of which has sold at record prices. The plan under which Temple Terraces is being developed makes it possible for an investor to secure a better grove for much less money and on easier terms than if he were to purchase land, trees, etc., and have the work done as a single unit.

Corporate management allows non-resident grove owners to continue their present occupation with the knowledge that their interests in Temple Terraces are being protected to the same extent as those of local grove owners. The planting and care of Temple Terraces groves will be under the supervision of the world's largest citrus nurseries, which insures the most expert attention.

We invite personal investigation of the possibilities of Temple Terraces. Opportunity to show visitors over the premises will be welcomed. The more people see the properties, the greater will be their popularity.

Write today for free copy of Booklet No. 1, which describes the proposition in detail.

We Like to See Children Come Into This Bank
Why? Because the children of today are the life and strength of the community tomorrow! After all—the thoughtful father of today really stores up his worldly goods so that later his children may be provided for properly and the youngsters cannot learn too soon the mighty function of a Federal Reserve Member Bank.

NOTED PUBLICIST AND PUBLISHER IS AT THE BEACH

Among those to arrive at the Beach today are Judge Winfield S. Overton of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. Alfred Whitehead, widow of the late famous physician and surgeon of that name long connected with John Hopkins university.

Judge Overton is not only an eminent lawyer, but as well an editor and publicist of distinction. He was long the publisher of the "Bulletin" in Brooklyn. He is well known throughout New York state as an anti-Tammany Democrat.

When asked how it happened that New York City had changed from a normal Democratic majority of 150,000 to a Republican majority of more than a million in a single year, he promptly said:

"It was a repudiation of Murphy of Tammany hall who boasted that he controlled the San Francisco convention and also of President Wilson for keeping us in war for years after the signing of the armistice. He was bound we would ride on his own miserable 'hobby horse' of a peace plan or else remain at war. As a result England, France, Italy, Spain and other European nations are now getting the commercial business of the world and we are shut out. England always an enemy at heart to this country, and I want you to know there is not a drop of Irish blood in my veins, is buying goods from us and selling them at a tremendous profit to Russia, Germany, Austria and other nations. Another thing that made the Democrats of the country to desert the administration by the millions was its Liberty Bond policy. We were appealed to to buy them at par to help out our country, which we did, and then the very day we did so the representatives of the Wilson administration went into Wall street and other markets and bought them back at as low as 83 and 84 cents. Is that the way for a nation to treat as patriotic a citizenship as ever existed? Is it any wonder that in New York hundreds of thousands of loyal Democrats were seen marching in Republican processions during the campaign. We have been long sufferers from the perfidy of England and Wilson has done all he could to make this nation the 'poodle dog' of Great Britain. In Australia there is no such a thing as government securities selling below par and we could have considerable political economy from that far off nation. There it is a crime for anyone to buy or offer for sale a government obligation below par. During the war in order to help out I sold many high interest paying securities; on properties in El Paso, Tex., and bought Liberty bonds at par. I am now in the same boat with millions of others and it is an outrage."

Judge Overton and Mrs. Whitehead were at Jacksonville on legal business connected with the estate of her late husband, and there they heard that "Billy Sunday" was to be at Daytona Beach. Desiring very much to hear the famous evangelist they came here purposely to attend his meetings. Judge Overton has long been a friend and admirer of Mr. Sunday. They registered at the Dixie hotel.

SHAW PUTS THREE BOY SCOUTS THRU FETES IN WATER

Assistant Scout Master A. W. Shaw took three of his most promising water boys out on the river yesterday afternoon and gave them their second class swimming test. He took them out in a boat to the middle of the Halifax river, damped them out and let them go to it. They were to swim 40 yards, turn a stake and return. Those who were successful were: George Cleveland, Floyd Stewart and Cecil Grant. They are all first class swimmers. In a few months they will be called upon to take the first class test, which is not much of a joke. Then they will be required to jump overboard into deep water with their clothes on, take off their clothes while in the water and then in another boy who has placed his body in the most helpless condition possible.

Both Scoutmaster Harry Gilmore and his assistant, Mr. Shaw, are taking constant interest in the progress of their boys and give them a great deal of attention.

A. B. Fell, wealthy retired capitalist of Philadelphia, who has been a winter guest at Ormond since early this season, and for several seasons past, died at an early hour this morning, death being due to natural causes of old age, the deceased having been nearly eighty years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Fell are well known among winter residents of Ormond, where they have a wide circle of friends, who grieve with the widow in the death of Mr. Fell. A son, who resides in Philadelphia, arrived at the bedside of his father several days ago, as death has been expected for some time.

Bingham & Maley are in charge of arrangements for burial, it being planned to ship the body to the northern home for interment.

Will Build a Half Mile Race Track Near Triple Cities for a Big Race Meet Next Winter

T. A. Arms of Knoxville, Tenn., and Newport, Ky., who has been here some days considering the possibility of bringing his string of running horses here for beach racing has abandoned this idea, but he has not given up his plans for making this one of his racing headquarters.

Mr. Arms has secured an option on a tract of land in close and convenient proximity to the Triple Cities and proposes to have it properly prepared as a half mile track and to have it ready for use by the time the next winter season opens here. He says he does not desire to give the exact location of this property just now, but he says he means business and that the land he has selected as a suitable race track will need practically no clearing and very little other preparation to put it in very good shape. "My idea is," said Mr. Arms, "that a permanent race track here will attract, during a 30 days' meet, next winter draw many thousands of people to the Triple Cities who would not come otherwise. I am planning on a modern half mile running track. The mile tracks are being abandoned for the reason that people like to see all of a race, which they cannot do very well when the track is a mile long. Unless something interferes I shall have constructed a grandstand about 200 feet long, so that the patrons can see the racers every inch of the way. I have selected this location for a track because I regard it as a sort of midway point, which will be easily reached from the other Florida resorts. Tourists can stop here en route to Miami, Palm Beach, Tampa, Key West, St. Petersburg and other points south and west."

When a boy Mr. Arms was employed by Pop Geers, the famous driver, and from him he learned much that he knows about horses and racing. In speaking of the veteran driver he said, "Other men may think as they please, but I don't think there ever was a better driver than 'Pop' Geers. I have seen him in many a pocket, when it seemed impossible to extricate himself, but he would somehow get out of a mighty small hole, and I don't believe any other driver could have done it."

Another modern feature that will be observed in Mr. Arms' Triple Cities track will be the "shoots" for the horses. They are now among the interesting equipment of the tracks at Louisiana, New Orleans, Lexington and Atlantic City, and in fact, most of the late day tracks. It is quite a sight to see the horses in uniform with their attractively attired jockeys run into these "shoots" and then waiting the word as they stand on an incline, waiting for the rubber barrier to be removed and the jockeys receive the word to go. With this system there is no such thing as delay and a lot of tiresome trials in getting a start. The horses stand in the "shoots" exactly "nose and nose"—no horse having a single inch of advantage—and then when the rubber barrier is drawn all are released on the same second and the dozen or more speedsters are off at the instant. This is certainly a grand sight for anyone who enjoys a good square running race.

Rehearsals Under Way for "Flower Shop", Feb. 25th

The Parent-Teachers Association of the North Ridgewood school has made arrangements to present the mammoth musical comedy, "The Flower Shop," at the Central High School auditorium, Friday, matinee and night Feb. 25, and the rehearsals are well under way. Local theatre goers are promised a treat in this production, which has been playing to packed houses in the larger cities of the south. The receipts are to go toward building up the children's playground of the North Ridgewood school and to this most worthy cause two capacity houses will undoubtedly result.

"The Flower Shop," featuring Charles Hilliard, the former feature of the George Evans "Honey Boy" minstrels, is rightly termed "the novelty show of 1921" introducing the Flower Basket Girls, the Trellis Girls, the Jonquil wedding, the moving cottage, the daisy drill, the dancing palm trees and with its local cast of almost 250 people, its novel costumes, (which are said to be the most expensive carried by an amateur theatrical) its pretty stage settings and being staged in its professional manner will be sure to please the most critical.

WOMAN CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY CLERK IS HERE
One of the most interesting winter visitors to arrive at the Beach today was Miss Winston J. Brown of Scottsville, Ky. She is a fine conversationalist and a young woman of affairs. Just now she is a candidate for clerk of her county, being the first woman to be a candidate for public office there.

"Five men are running against me," said Miss Brown with confidence, "but I believe I will win, as I have been for seven years a deputy in the office and I have a large acquaintance throughout the county. She is located at 231 Atlantic avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Woodward of New York City are among the recent arrivals who are delighted because they came. They are very much pleased with their entertainment at the Daytona Beach hotel.

IMPERIAL WIZARD,
K. K. K. CALLS FOR INVESTIGATION OF THE WILCOX LETTER

The Daytona Daily News is in receipt of the following communication from W. J. Simmons, Imperial Wizard Knights of the Ku Klux Klan:
ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 18—Investigation to the report that a threatening letter signed "K. K. K." had been sent to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wilcox of Daytona Beach has been ordered by Colonel William J. Simmons, Imperial Wizard of the Knight of the Ku Klux Klan.

"The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan do not countenance the sending of threatening letters, or the use of force, violence or intimidation under any circumstances," said Colonel Simmons, "and if it is found that this letter was sent by any member of this organization he will be banished at once from the order, and if the investigation shows it was sent by some one outside the organization, who misused its name, he will be prosecuted to the limit of the law."

"It is very probable some one has taken advantage of the Ku Klux Klan and merely used the initials of this order, but whether it was a member of the organization or an outsider he should be punished."

In this connection Colonel Simmons called attention to the fact that there is a standing reward for the arrest with evidence to convict any person who uses the name of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan for any purpose or in connection with any movement not sanctioned by law, and the said reward would apply in this instance. (Signed) W. J. SIMMONS, Imperial Wizard, Knight of the Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Babcock and E. A. Taylor of Atlanta arrived Saturday and are temporary domiciled at the Dixie hotel.

PENINSULA LOCALS

Miss Fannie E. Brown of Scottsville, Ky., has arrived and is with her sister, Mrs. W. J. Brown, at 231 Atlantic avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Watkins of Pittsburgh, Pa., are here for an extended stay and are most satisfactorily located at 510 Grandview avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Addams of Kingston, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Vesay of Wilmington, Del., arrived yesterday and are comfortably domiciled at the Dixie hotel.

Mrs. J. W. Stall of Lexington, Ky., and Mrs. T. R. Fetter of Louisville, Ky., are among the recent delighted arrivals at the Seaside Inn. They are very agreeable people and are making many friends here.

Mrs. William S. Webb of Lexington, Ky., wife of Dr. W. S. Webb of the University of Kentucky, accompanied by her little daughter, has joined her mother, Mrs. J. H. Lary, also of Lexington and who has been an all winter guest at the Villa Marie. They are very pleasant people.

S. B. Dishman, a distinguished lawyer of Harboursville, Ky., is one of the interesting guests of the Daytona Beach hotel. This is his first visit to the Triple Cities, but he says he is delighted with the climate, the beach, the hotel, the people and all the features he has thus far seen. He is a close observer, has traveled extensively and says he cannot see how the Beach can help but be one of the most popular resorts in the world.

J. W. Buck, an extensive real estate operator of Baltimore, Md., is a guest at the Daytona Beach hotel. He regards this as a wonderful location for a winter resort, and that he says the matchless beach assures its popularity for all time. He is so much interested that he is investigating various propositions and it is not at all improbable that when he returns home he will have in his possession several warranty deeds for valuable peninsula real estate.

Thomas J. Davies of Barberton, Ohio, has purchased of Jerome L. Weatherby, the well known furniture dealer, a fine residence property on Vermont avenue in Marshall Park and near the library. It is an attractive seven room house with modern conveniences, and after the first of May Mr. Davies expects to occupy it as his permanent residence. For this home Mr. Davies paid $7,500, and he has made other real estate investments here within the past few weeks that will total close to $20,000, and has others pending. He sees a great future for peninsula property.

BILLY SUNDAY

"Billy" and "Ma" Sunday Enjoying Their Stay Here

The Rev. "Billy" and Mrs. Sunday are enjoying their life at the Princess Ismena and pronounce it an ideal and homelike hotel.

Yesterday they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Grove and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Seeley at the Princess, and when the news representative saw him and Mrs. Sunday the latter was anxiously arranging for dinner promptly, as she said "Daddy" could not preach immediately after dining.

The appellation "Ma" which the press of the country has given to Mrs. Sunday is entirely misleading. Her appearance is not in the least what the title would imply. One would be apt to picture "Ma Sunday" as short and fat, with the waist line entirely lost when, in fact, she is rather a handsome woman of middle age, having a very pleasing personality and a genial manner.

Mrs. Sunday has just finished a series of meetings in Fairmont, W. Va. He was there for six weeks and says the meetings were very successful.

Mrs. Sunday with him early in his campaign in Fairmont, but she has since been in California, having just returned from the western trip. She hopes to be here during the services in Daytona and Seabreeze, but says she must be at her home in Winona Lake, Ind., when the General Assembly of the Presbyterian churches of the United States meet there in May.

To a representative of the News Mr. Sunday said that his first meetings in the Auditorium had been very satisfactory to him. He said the Auditorium was a wonderful building for a town of this size and said that his reasons for having special tabernacles built in many of the cities where he held meetings was that a few of them had appropriate auditoriums. If they had places that were sufficiently large it was almost always the case that the acoustics were so bad that a person could not talk in them night after night.

Mr. Sunday was asked if it was not true that there was less enthusiasm and demand for revival meetings than formerly, and if it was not true that he was receiving fewer calls to the big cities. He said that neither was the case; that the great world war had upset conditions in every line of endeavor, but that the people of the world were now awakening to the fact that in the work of reconstruction they needed religion, and that they had never needed it more than at the present time and in the present work. He said that conditions following the war made it almost impossible to carry on great religious campaigns; that the cities were crowded with new building operations; that materials and labor were so high as to make the building of temporary tabernacles impracticable; that where such buildings to be erected, taken in almost all cities, the only place to be obtained for the purpose would be away from the center of things where it would be difficult for people to assemble; that the tendency in all cities was for activities to center around the postoffice.

Mr. Sunday said that he was very thoroughly pleased with the Triple Cities and with the Princess Ismena. He said that the state owed a great debt of gratitude to the late Hon. M. Flagler, who had caught a wonderful vision when he had foreseen the future of the Florida East Coast and that it took courage and faith for him to put his money into the wilderness of this state and so materially aid in its development. He said Florida had a "pull" that no other section of the country possessed. One thing that made it so was the ease with which people from the big cities of the North could reach it. He said that when a person could take a Pullman in his own town and step out almost in front of one of the fine homes of the East Coast it made the trip a pleasure rather than a dread.

E. W. Grove who was one of the hosts for the Sunday dinner party yesterday, is the owner of the Grove Park Inn at Asheville, N. C. and his son-in-law, F. L. Seeley, is the manager of the hotel, which is one of the largest and most popular in the country. They, with their families, came down on their boat and are very much enjoying the wonderful Florida weather.

From Daytona Beach and Seabreeze Mr. Sunday will go to Union, N. C., where he will hold a series of revival meetings. He says that this circuit has been but little affected by the war boom, but that it has had a steady and normal growth and that it is a fine city of American people.

health, but Manager Haynes of the Princess Ismena says he will send him away from his hotel with a genuine "John Benny" physique.

Mrs. William Asher of Sunday Party Is Called to St. Louis

Mrs. William Asher, of Winona Lake, who has been in charge of the women's meetings in connection with the Billy Sunday evangelistic campaign, received the sad intelligence of the serious illness of her husband's mother, at St. Louis, and left today for that city.

Mrs. Asher is the wife of the pastor of one of the Winona Lake churches and has been instrumental in her conduct of women's classes during the Sunday services. Her duties here will be taken over by Miss Florence Kinney, of Springfield, Ohio, who will continue the work among the women, as commenced by Mrs. Asher.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Homes Celebrate 25th Anniversary

One of the loveliest social events of the season was the party on Friday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Holmes at their beautiful home on North Ridgewood avenue, in honor of the twentieth anniversary of their wedding day. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes are among Daytona's most popular and best loved residents and on this happy occasion they were the recipients of many good wishes and beautiful presents. A delicious luncheon was served, after which the guests repaired to the ball room and enjoyed dancing and the hours slipped happily away. Many of the guests to enjoy the occasion were from the Prince George hotel and these presented Mr. and Mrs. Holmes with a china tea set, appropriate to the occasion.

The following friends of this worthy couple made up the party: Mr. and Mrs. James Keisley, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hiyard, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Arner, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey, M. Vaughn, Miss Margaret Mitchell, Mrs. Mary E. Youlin and James Keisley.

GOES TO JAIL TO SAVE HORSE FROM BEING SHOT

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—An old horse, Bumbo by name, manched his oats with satisfaction one day recently. For three days he had stood in his stall waiting for his owner to hitch him to the rattle old vegetable cart he had been pulling around the hard pavement for fourteen years. And his master, John Bannan, of East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street, did not come back. His absence of three days was due to his love for old Bumbo, for rather than allow the decrepit old horse to be shot he went to jail.

Bumbo was reported by humane friends as being lame and generally "old and decrepit" and was held in the pound for three days. He was then taken to the pound and held in the pound for three days. He was then taken to the pound and held in the pound for three days.

Sunday Takes a Rap at Those Believing in 'Monkey' Ancestors

organizations including religious ones. Billy announced that he was a Republican and this brought out a round of applause. He said he lived in a state where Democrats were as scarce as Republicans were here; had he lived his life in Florida no doubt he too, would be a Democrat. Billy refused to accept the theory of evolution and says he is quite sure his forebears never lived in trees and amused themselves by throwing coconuts at their neighbors. He said all who wished to go as could go to hell with their monkey ancestors, but for him he wanted to be left out of it. He is convinced that man is just as God made him. The Bible says God breathed the breath of life in man and he says had man been writing the Bible there would have been a great mix up for he would have had God breathing the breath of life in the elephant, the kangaroo, the alligator and all animals, but the book says "God breathed the breath of life into man."

Billy says the doubters, the agnostics and the infidels always bring up the same old questions, one of which is "Where did Cain get his wife?" Billy says he does not know or care where Cain got his wife and that he does not think it looks well for men to be so interested in other men's wives. He says that students have shown that the population doubles every 25 years and as Cain was a mere youth of 123 years, when he courted and won his wife, whoever she might have been, that he had quite a crowd from which to choose. Another question always brought up he says is that of the "Immaculate Conception," and he says that these doubters say that God never has upset the laws of nature but the Rev. Billy says the immaculate Conception is a scientific fact proven in many instances on the lower planes of life.

In passing the Rev. Billy gave Old John Bannan a slap and said Billy was the people of all churches, Catholic and Protestant alike, voted as they should, the school would have been in hell 50 years sooner than it was. He said he was often asked "Why did God make woman out of the rib of a man?" and answered by saying he did not know as he was not there at the time, but said you might as well ask why when making a sand which a woman did not make new dough and bake another loaf of bread. The reason she did not was no doubt because it was much easier and quicker to cut a slice from the loaf she already had.

Mr. Sunday said that many persons claiming to be students never read the Bible. He said he would not ask anybody that any man knew anything that he who did not read and study the Bible.

Mr. Sunday said that many people were not satisfied with the Bible but that actually had no souls and no hearts. There was a horse or dog or cat that would bark and growl and howl and make a noise but it was not the quality of life which was in the creature's nature and soul. Billy said that many people were not satisfied with the Bible but that actually had no souls and no hearts. HOTEL CLARENDON

Among the distinguished guests at the Hotel Clarendon during the week were F. W. Galbraith, national commander of the American Legion, with his charming wife, Col. and Mrs. Galbraith live in Cincinnati, but they came to Florida direct from New York to Seabreeze on a pleasure and business trip. The colonel expressed himself as pleased, because he had met so many old time friends in Seabreeze, among them being Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Gardner of Toledo and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Berold of Cincinnati, both families having cottages in Seabreeze; also R. L. Callio, the courteous cashier at the Clarendon, whom the colonel had known for six years, and when Mr. Callio was cashier in the Woodward hotel in New York City, also A. Roach, who is chief bell-boy at the Clarendon and whom Col. Galbraith had known when Roach was serving in the same capacity in the Woodward hotel.

Col. Galbraith is a very distinguished appearing gentleman. He has prematurely gray hair, which gives added distinction to his appearance. He was with the Thirty-seventh division and was colonel of the 14th infantry, and although he was too modest to talk of his war experiences, the history of his division tells its own story.

Col. Galbraith was elected to the high office of national commander of the American Legion on September 26 to succeed Franklin D'Olier, who was the first man to enjoy this honor. His office will expire on November 1, holding past the year to the time of the national convention to be held in Kansas City on September 29-30 and November 1.

Col. Galbraith said that there was now 11,000 organized posts of the American Legion, a million members, 25 women's auxiliaries, and that there were organizations in every state and every dependency of the United States, and as well in 16 foreign countries, including all the allied nations.

Col. Galbraith was asked what the advantages were to a man belonging to the Legion, and he said:

"We never inquire what a man is to gain by joining the Legion, but it is rather a matter of what the Legion gains by his membership. The Legion is bound to become the greatest force in the world. It is absolutely democratic; no man is ever addressed by his title; every man is plain 'Mr.' or 'Comrade' in the Legion. The organization is absolutely non-partisan, non-political and non-sectarian. Our aim is to teach and to insist upon 100 per cent Americanism."

In every community where there is a post this organization stands for all things that tend to the uplift of the public and for all civic righteousness.

"It is not the province or work of the Legion to enter into the labor disturbances of the country, and it has never acted as a strike breaker or taken part in any of these disturbances."

Col. Galbraith was asked if there was any distinction made between the men who had seen foreign service and those who had only been in camp on this side, and he said:

"It is very seldom that one member will even ask of another whether or not he has seen overseas service. The man who stood ready to go when his time came is just as much of a patriot as the man who went across; in fact, every man who was compelled by circumstances to remain on this side doing military duty feels that it was his misfortune that he was not called overseas."

Col. Galbraith said there was no organization of "overseas" men, but that he did not belong to it.

Mrs. Galbraith is a very charming little woman and was much pleased with Seabreeze, and both she and her distinguished husband were delighted with the Hotel Clarendon. Mrs. Galbraith said she had feared that it would be an ultra fashionable place, but that she was delighted with its elegance and at the same time its genuine home-like air and democratic atmosphere. They enjoyed the wonderful beach, as do all visitors, and Col. Galbraith, who spent yesterday morning on the Clarendon golf links pronounced them wonderful and said that he had very thoroughly enjoyed the games there.

Col. and Mrs. Galbraith have recently spent several days in Jacksonville, where he spoke at a large meeting of the Legion, and will stop there today on their way North.

H. H. Raymond of New York City arrived at the Hotel Clarendon Thursday. Mr. Raymond is president of the Clyde line of steamships and is also connected with the Mallory steamship line. In his party at the Clarendon are Miss M. Ryan of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. R. L. Burgess of Wolf-trill, N. S.; and Mrs. F. R. Borden of Fernandina, Fla.

Mrs. Margaret K. Snyder left this morning for Ft. Pierce where she will be the guest of Mrs. Frank Horton for several days.

If you want help—try a classified.

HOTEL DESPLAND

Guests at the Hotel Despland enjoyed another of their delightful card parties Thursday evening, when Mrs. H. C. Sherrick of Cincinnati was the hostess. There were 13 tables, and both bridge and five hundred were played. The decorations were artistic, the refreshments delicious, and every one reported a fine time. The prizes were won by Mesdames H. S. Tuttle, H. C. McCrady, H. D. Robinson, Elizabeth Marshall, R. W. Kempshell, C. E. Faye, Robert Beattie, John Murphy, Miss Ernestine Sutherland and Messrs. J. H. McCurdy, G. P. Freyling and J. C. Bogert.

Movie Company Departs

Alvin Knechtel, the camera man with the moving picture company that has during the week been taking pictures in and near the Triple Cities for a new production, tested the warmth of the waters of the Tomoka on Thursday when he slipped and fell from the boat into the river. He was fearful that he might encounter an alligator, but was rescued by his friends. The party came into the Despland on Thursday evening, delighted because they had succeeded in securing a fine picture of the "rescue scene," which is to be one of the principal ones in the picture. This was the last work they did and completed the series for which they had come to Daytona, and on Friday morning they departed for New York.

RIDGEWOOD HOTEL

Yesterday G. G. Behn of Detroit, who is a guest at the Ridgewood, went on a fishing trip and returned with 25 pounds of fish. He at once repaired to the domain of the chef to ask that they be prepared for the dinner soon to be served, and the expression on the face of the chef was one that Mr. Behn will long remember. He hastened to assure that potentate that he did not wish him to prepare them, but only to show him (Behn) where the work was to be done and that he would look after the rest of the matter. The chef did and Mr. Behn prepared his "catch" in a manner that for its efficiency and promptness elicited the admiration of all his friends.

ORTONA

Soon the Quadruple Cities. If Ortona continues its rapid growth we shall soon have another city to add to the Triple Cities, making it the Quadruple Cities.

It can be plainly seen by the type of houses being erected by Simpson & Pope that it will be a worthy addition. The building restrictions, the attractive gardens, the wide choice of lots—whether on the beach, the river, or inland—the thoroughly citified improvements, the Casino for Ortona's amusements, the restaurant, broad dock, and greatest of all, the low prices for what is perhaps the best situated development property in all Florida.

The whole Halifax Country is a wonderland and Ortona, with its activity in all lines or progress will soon be ready to join hands with Seabreeze, Daytona Beach and Daytona, in a pact of Quadruple Cities.

Pool Tournament at Prince George of Great Interest

Interest in the pool tournament at the Hotel Prince George is reaching a high tension of anxiety and the guests are trying to pick the winner, while J. B. Barnes has been showing remarkable skill in driving the balls into the pockets. C. H. Bunn is a dangerous second. Mr. Bunn is said to be the best amateur pool player in his home city and has won many trophies in similar tournaments before, and his many friends seem to feel confident he is going to pack the silver cup in his trunk when he leaves for his home in New York. The score up to last evening is as follows:

Games won—J. E. McGee, 2; A. J. Oberlin, 3; J. B. Barnes, 4; C. H. Bunn, 3; M. H. Nael, 1; J. Kelsey, 1; G. H. Cole, 1; F. H. Lamb, 1.

Chosen Committees Sell Y.M.C.A. $1600 More of Beach St. Golf Club Bonds

At a meeting of the campaign teams Friday afternoon, the sale of bonds of the Daytona Golf and Country club during the last few days were reported at $1,600, bringing the total of bonds sold at this time to $35,700.

The new holders of bonds in the local golf club are: David Sholtz, Max Laidersdorf, The New Gables Hotel, L. E. Treadway, C. J. Chryst, J. Glinberg, P. Ladas, H. G. Fletcher, Elmer Kipp, F. J. Nelson and W. B. Mills.

Four new members have also been added to the roster of the club, those recently joining being L. D. Dreary and C. A. Bresford of Seabreeze, and Ray and Ernest Green of Daytona.

The team captained by W. M. Hankins reported the largest sale of bonds since the campaign opened, with the Julian A. Arroyo team, second. A number of teams reported no sales to date, and were urged to make a canvas of their territory at once, that the bond sale may be brought to the total of $100,000 within a short time. The membership lists are also short some seventy members, who, it is hoped, will be signed during the present campaign.

GOOD MORNING, JUDGE!

Vags Kept Traveling

Daytona is getting the over-flow of vagrants from Jacksonville, Miami and other large Florida cities, where the police are making a general clean-up of every person who cannot give a good account of themselves and can prove occupation.

Two characters dropped into town Friday who did not look good to the local police, who picked them up and lodged them in jail.

They appeared before the judge this morning on a vagrancy charge and were sentenced to 30 days at hard labor. After they had pictured themselves in the role of laborers, which was almost an impossibility from their appearance, the judge offered to cancel the sentence if the two "birds" would show their heels to Daytona by noon today. They wasted no time in going.

Colder in the North.

The north got a touch of the cold weather which is promised for next week, during Friday and last night, when the thermometer hits low marks in most northern cities. The drop was felt more than usual because of the extremely warm weather throughout the north the past several weeks.

Maule's Rock Is Hard and Tough

"Test It With a Hammer"

A Conclusive Argument Against Soft Rock and Surplus Fine Material

Highway Engineers universally agree on the following specifications of rock for highway purposes. (Copied from "Manual of Highway Construction.")

"Broken stone for road work should have the qualities of HARDNESS, TOUGHNESS and freedom from lamination or cleavage planes. According as it excels in these qualities, it is valuable. The cementing quality, or that property which will make the particles bind together when rolled, is also of considerable value, but THIS PROPERTY IS DUE TO THE QUALITY OF THE STONE, WHICH IS DIRECTLY OPPOSED TO HARDNESS."

"A GOOD QUALITY OF STONE will furnish about 75 per cent of its product larger than 3/4 inch in size, and the remainder in screenings and dust."

CHALK has greater cementing qualities than any rock, but will not build a highway.

MAULE'S OJUS ROCK IS HARD AND TOUGH, and more than 75 per cent of our quarry run and crusher run rock is 3/4 inch and larger in size.

THE TRUE TEST of a paving material is the life of the pavement of which it is built.

Practically all the best roads and streets on the East Coast are built of MAULE'S OJUS ROCK. NONE HAVE WORN OUT.

GOVERNMENT TEST at the Watertown Arsenal of concrete, made of MAULE'S OJUS ROCK, 1-2-4 mixture, 28 days, 2,740 pounds per square inch.

Rock from the Fulford quarry is being called "Ojus Rock," which is not fair, as the Fulford rock is so soft that it is dug without drilling and blasting and is much softer than the rock so well known on the East Coast as OJUS ROCK.
